

Seizure of property.

In accordance with applicable law {1} I arrest and seize all assets and property of Elon Musk, Larry Page, Sergey Brin, Jeff Bezos, Mark Zuckerberg, Larry Ellison, and other billionaires as well as all assets and property of companies and organizations associated with them {2,3}. From now on, the right to dispose of this property belongs to me, and the property itself is the property of the Foundation for Constitutional Development, and therefore cannot be sold or purchased, transferred or taken into possession, destroyed, created, or used without my participation and permission. I oblige all employees of companies and organizations now owned by the Foundation for Constitutional Development, and all other people involved in these companies and organizations, to follow my orders and give me all information about these companies and organizations quickly. All credit institutions are obliged to provide me immediate and unrestricted access to the bank accounts of these companies, organizations, and their employees.
